1. A large number of trains have transferred dismantled parts of various factories from Serbia to Bosnia and Hercegovina. Although the ultimate destination of the equipment is unknown, the majority of the trains were routed to Sarajevo.
2. The Yugoslav authorities have taken steps to store in the central regions the grain crop obtained from the population. Accordingly, all the districts in Bosnia, and to some extent in Hercegovina, have been ordered to prepare storage space for 200 to 300 carloads of grain. Catholic, Orthodox and Moslem churches, primarily, will be used to store the grain. In Sarajevo, only one Catholic and one Orthodox church have been left open for religious services, while all others including 30 mosques, have been transformed into warehouses.
